Gentlemen: STATINTL

Reference is made to your letter, dated 1 August 1951, in which you request a copy of [redacted] Personal Service Contract with this Agency. Pursuant to telephone conversation on this matter between John S. Warner, Acting General Counsel of this Agency, and Commander Warner, we are enclosing a copy of the contract, No. [redacted] and the renewal thereof.

STATINTL

The General Accounting Office, as you were advised, has offered to work directly with your office in the event questions arise as to the status of [redacted] retired pay. The question was submitted in an informal manner to Mr. E. L. Fisher, the General Counsel for the General Accounting Office.

STATINTL

At the present time Carl P. Friend, an attorney in the General Counsel's office has advised this Agency that there was no question in their mind that the proposed services of [redacted] were intermittent within the meaning of previous GAO rulings and would not be considered as holding an office or position. As a consequence, [redacted] would not be required to give up his retired pay for the days on which he was paid fees by the Central Intelligence Agency for consultations.

STATINTL

STATINTL

After discussion with Mr. Friend, it was indicated that the General Accounting Office would not initiate correspondence on this matter with you. However, they would be ready to assist your office in whatever way possible to clarify this situation.

Sincerely yours,

Walter Reid Wolf
Deputy Director
